FOR THE UNION. TEMPERANCE MEETING.

A meeting of the Monongalia Temperance Society was held on Monday evening, 6th inst., in the Baptist Ch., W. T. Willey, Esq., President, in the chair, W. S. Downer appointed Secretary pro tem.

Rev. H. W. Biggs opened the exercises with prayer. Rev. S. Siegfried, who was appointed to address the meeting, then came forward and stated that he was very much fatigued, having just returned from a journey over the mountain, and asked to have his address postponed till this night week, which was accordingly done.

Wm. Lazier, Esq. offered the following article for the consideration of the Society at some future time :

Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves as men, to use all legal power to sustain and enforce the laws of this Commonwealth regulating the manu-Factory') and are fitting it up for the facturing, vending and using ardent

The resolution was supported with apposite remarks by Messrs. Lazier & Siegfried, and then laid on the table for further action.

On motion, the following named gentlemen were appointed a committee port at the next meeting. Committee, Messrs. Berkshire, Hough, Bunker.

The pledge was then circulated and 20 names obtained.

The Society then adjourned, to convene on next Monday night, in the M. P. Church, if it is not engaged, and if their meeting is still in progress at that time, in the Baptist Church.

Sale of Valuable Property.

BY virtue of a deed of trust executed to me by James Kinsley & Anna his wife, admitted to record in the Clerk's Office of the County Court of Monongalia county, oh 3d September, 1857, in order to secure the payment to James A. Curry, of the sum of Seven Thousand and One Hundred Dollars,

On the 25th day of March, 1859, on the public ground before the Court House in Morgantown. Monongalia county, Virginia, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for ready money, all the right, title and interest vested in me by said deed of trust, whether legal or equitable, in and to all the real estate composing the Valley Furnace estate on Decker's creek, in the said county of Monongalia, which was sold by the heirs of Alpheus P. Wilson to the said James Kinsley, on the 16 h day of October, 1854, consisting of several parcels of Land, containing in the aggregate about fifteen hundred acres, as described in an article of agreement of Edgar C. Wilson, for said heirs of Alpheus P. Wilson and the said James Kinsley, filed among the papers of a suit now pending on the Chancery side of the Circuit Court of Monongalia county, wherein the heirs of said Alpheus P. Wilson are plaintiffs and the said James Kinsley is defendantreference whereunto is hereby had for a more particular description.

There is a previous lien on these premises for two thousand dollars of purchase money due the heirs of Alpheus P. Wilson, with interest thereon from the 16th of October, 1854, and the costs of the aforesaid suit now pending to enforce said tien. It is believed there is no other lien on the premises prior to said deed of trust; and the sa'e will be subject to said lien. The purchaser at this sale will, on payment and satisfaction of said lien for purchase money, entitle himself to a complete right and title to the premises. W. T. WILLEY, Trustee. Feb. 22d, 1859.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor Boerhaye. Because of its great specess in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland, scattered here and there over the thee of the highty county.—Moeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public.

It is pasticularly recomended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of rident spirits or other forms of disinpation. Generally instructa-nous in its effects it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirits, and, in fact, infusing now health and viger into the
